Bruſſels, November 26.

THE contagious Diſtemper among the Horned Cattle has again made its Appearance in theſe Provinces. The Diſtricts where it principally prevails are the Parts of Flanders and Brabant which border upon the Dutch Frontier; and, in order to prevent the farther Spreading of the Infection, this Government has iſſued out an Ordinance prohibiting the Importation of Cattle or Hides from thoſe Diſtricts into any other Parts of theſe Provinces; they have likewiſe renewed in general, with regard to all Places where the Infection ſhall diſcover itſelf, the Regulations which were put in Practice when it raged with ſo much Violence in this Country Ten Years ago, and which, as they were then ſo effectual as very ſhortly to ſuppreſs the Diſorder, though univerſally prevalent, will, it is hoped, be equally ſucceſsful at preſent in ſtopping the Progreſs of it.
